DETAILED ACTION

1. A telephone call was made to Jefferson Perkins on 8 May 2008 to request an oral election to the above restriction requirement, but did not result in an election being made.

Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include (i) an election of a species or invention to be examined even though the requirement may be traversed (37 CFR 1.143) and (ii) identification of the claims encompassing the elected invention.

The election of an invention or species may be made with or without traverse. To preserve a right to petition, the election must be made with traverse. If the reply does not distinctly and specifically point out supposed errors in the restriction requirement, the election shall be treated as an election without traverse.

Election/Restrictions

2. Restriction is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 and 372.

This application contains the following inventions or groups of inventions which are not so linked as to form a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1.

In accordance with 37 CFR 1.499, applicant is required, in reply to this action, to elect a single invention to which the claims must be restricted.

Group I, claim(s) 1-39, drawn to an apparatus and method for monitoring fetal behavior.

Group II, claim (s) 40-54, drawn to an apparatus and method for determining fetal spatial presentation and/or position.

Art Unit: 3762

1. The inventions listed as Groups I and II do not relate to a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1 because, under PCT Rule 13.2, they lack the same or corresponding special technical features for the following reasons:

a. Claims 1 & 22 are drawn to an apparatus and method for monitoring fetal behavior comprising an input for receiving ECG data, a waveform pre-processor for identifying fetal ECG complex waveforms, and a waveform processor and an event logger. All of which are known in the art at the time of the invention, as demonstrated below.

b. Claims 40 & 48 are drawn to an apparatus and method for determining fetal spatial presentation and/or position comprising an input for receiving ECG data, a waveform pre-processor, a memory for storing a plurality of fetal ECG, and a comparator including a set of fetal ECG complex templates.

There is a clear lack of unity of invention because the common matter of the independent claims is well known and the remaining subject matter of each claim differs from that of the others without there being any unifying novel inventive concept.

3. Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).

Response to Arguments

4. Applicant's arguments, filed 29 February 2008, with respect to the objections of the specification, drawings and claims have been fully considered and are persuasive. In addition, the 35 U.S.C. § 112 have been fully considered and are persuasive. Therefore, the above objections and 112 rejections of the claims, drawings and specification have been withdrawn.
